

ABOUT SCGA JUNIOR:

SCGA Junior's mission is to engage under-reached youth in the lifelong benefits of golf so that they can achieve their dreams and potential. SCGA Junior develops character in all kids by creating an engaged community that inspires our youth through mentorship and empowerment. To do this, we develop affordable access to the game and open the doors for so much beyond golf. Annually, we serve 6,000 kids and we aspire to serve and impact many more.

SCGA JUNIOR CULTURE:

We're passionate about youth and their development through golf. If you love working with kids and you love golf, this may be your place. SCGA Junior is a fast-paced, growing organization that continues to plan for expansion. Opportunities to develop professionally and personally are encouraged and financially supported by our organization. Access to discounted golf, apparel and accessories is a perk.

SCGA JUNIOR VALUES:

Our team is driven by our shared values. We are authentic and honest. We empathize with others and are open-minded. We create and invest in our entire community. Our work is empowering for us and for our participants. We are accountable to each other and to our constituents. We believe in creating opportunities and enriching the golf experience in a fun and welcoming environment.

AVAILABLE POSITION: GOLF INSTRUCTOR

Working within our player and youth development team, the golf instructor position is a full-time position dedicated to providing affordable golf instruction to junior golfers in under-reached areas. The golf instructor is an expert in youth development, teaching golf to juniors and is a leader in the junior golf field. The golf instructor serves as a lead coach while conducting classes and works closely with our program manager to develop, improve and expand the program in San Fernando Valley communities. Primary job duties include: implementing our golf and youth development curriculum adapted from the Titleist Performance Institute, being a positive role model, day-to-day program administration, developing the next generation of golfers through teaching and mentorship at our growing San Fernando Valley communities, as well as developing additional opportunities for instruction participants outside of class.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor's degree (B.A.) from a four-year college or university is preferred.
- 2-3 years golf experience required.
- Experience working in youth development, junior golf instruction and curriculum development.
- Must have excellent oral and written communication skills; must be detailed oriented and well-organized.
- Ability to integrate diverse viewpoints, ideas and opinions working with staff and industry stakeholders.
- Must be willing to learn, be a good team member and bring a creative energy to the position.
- Proficient in using Microsoft Office.

SCHEDULE AND PAY:

The Golf Instructor position is a full-time, exempt position. The work schedule will be Monday-Thursday and Saturday. Medical, dental and vision benefits are offered in addition to 401k and pension plan. Professional development opportunities are always encouraged for team members to seek out and attend. Pay is determined on experience and job qualifications.

SUBMISSIONS:

Qualified individuals who meet the job requirements should submit their resume with a cover letter indicating "Golf Instructor" in the subject line via e-mail to Kaycee Wilke at kwilke@scga.org.
