

Available Position: Assistant Director, Instruction

SCGA Youth on Course is seeking to build a premier junior golf program in Los Angeles utilizing the Titleist Performance Institute Junior Golf Curriculum. If you have a passion for developing youth, building junior golf, and striving to be the best, this is an opportunity for you. Utilizing your experience and expertise with TPI, you will help build a developing program in the south east part of Los Angeles County. Supported by our team, you will be the lead instructor at two programming sites.

The Assistant Director, Instruction (herein AD) will be responsible for managing, developing, and building the Youth on Course instruction program, which implements the YoC decision making curriculum and the Titleist Performance Institute's junior golf curriculum. This will include operating two program sites (Pico Rivera GC and Norwalk GC) and teaching the majority of lessons while continuing to implement and improve the curriculums. The AD will work one day per week at the office and four days per week all instruction sites or remotely, while also overseeing one other instructor. The AD will work closely with the Executive Director and Program staff to ensure that this program meets its goals and will also support the programming at River Ridge GC. The AD will also support all other programs with a focus on having the instruction kids participate in all other YoC initiatives. The AD reports to the Executive Director, works closely with the Program Director, and is supported by Coach Across America coaches at both sites. The AD also assists with development as needed and serves as a representative for the SCGA and SCGA Youth on Course to members, constituents, and the public.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree (B.A.) from a four-year college or university. 5-7 years of youth development and/or junior golf experience. PGA/LPGA/TPI Certification as well as playing experience strongly preferred.
- Demonstrated passion and expertise in sports-based youth development and junior golf.
- Must have excellent oral and written communication skills; must be detailed oriented, well-organized, and have strong analytical and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to integrate diverse viewpoints, ideas, and opinions working with staff, Board of Directors, and industry stakeholders.
- Must be willing to learn, be a good team member, and bring a creative energy to the position.
- Proficient in using Microsoft Office and ability to learn program and fundraising software.

Compensation and Benefits:

Salary commensurate with experience. Benefits include medical, dental, vision and other group insurance; paid holidays, vacation, and sick leave; and other employer-sponsored benefits.

Working at Youth on Course:

Join this fast-paced team of golf and youth development enthusiasts and help develop and create one of the best junior golf programs in the country working with the Titleist Performance Institute Junior Golf Curriculum. Work effectively in a team environment that thrives off collaboration and innovation. Make a difference in the lives of young people while developing their golfing talent. Only passionate applicants need apply.

Submissions:

Qualified individuals who meet the job requirements should submit their resume with a cover letter indicating "Assistant Director, Instruction" in the subject line via e-mail to kgigax@scga.org.

Submission deadline is April 15, 2014.

*Youth on Course is seeking additional TPI instructors for positions starting at a minimum of 20 hours per week.